Your local CPS</h3> The CPS operates across England and Wales, with 14 regional teams prosecuting cases locally. The Crown Prosecution Service</h3> The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) prosecutes criminal cases that have been investigated by the police and other investigative organisations in England and Wales. The CPS is independent, and we make our decisions independently of the police and government. Our duty is to make sure that the right person is prosecuted for the right offence, and to bring offenders to justice wherever possible. The CPS: decides which cases should be prosecuted; determines the appropriate charges in more serious or complex cases, and advises the police during the early stages of investigations; prepares cases and presents them at court; and provides information, assistance and support to victims and prosecution witnesses. Prosecutors must be fair, objective and independent. When deciding whether to prosecute a criminal case, our lawyers must follow the Code for Crown Prosecutors. This means that to charge someone with a criminal offence, prosecutors must be satisfied that there is sufficient evidence to provide a realistic prospect of conviction, and that prosecuting is in the public interest. <h3>

Crime info</h3> We prosecute people for hundreds of different types of crime every year. This section gives an introduction to some of the categories of offending that we are asked about most often. <ul class="two-cols">

Victims & witnesses</h3> Being a victim or a witness to a crime is not easy, but with your help, we work hard to bring offenders to justice. Throughout the justice process we will support you and treat you with dignity. From reporting the crime to passing sentence we explain what happens, the role of the CPS and what you can expect from us.

22 Annual Report published Chief Inspector Charlie Taylor has published his Annual Report for 2021-22, outlining the findings from 63 inspection, scrutiny and thematic reports published in the year. The report highlights the poor time out of cell and access to purposeful activity experienced by many prisoners, as well as issues with staff recruitment and retention, concerns for the well-being of women, poor provision for children, haphazard arrangements for immigration detainees and a mixed picture in court custody.

He highlights what seems to be an inertia from leaders that is preventing prisoners getting back into education, training and work, and a comfort with maintaining a limited regime that has supposedly kept violence low. This lack of purposeful activity is particularly concerning for prisoners in category C training and resettlement prisons.

He pointed to a “dramatic decline” in performance at the YOI and “numerous significant concerns about the treatment and conditions of children” held there... But I am pleased to say that our recent experience at Feltham and two other prisons we have inspected shows that positive change is possible – and, for me, the key ingredient is effective leadership.

<h1>COVID-19 Update</h1>
In line with government guidance on social distancing and recognising the current pressures on the Criminal Justice System in responding to Covid-19, some of the planned joint inspection activity has been suspended.
As a result we will be unable to deliver all joint inspection activity as laid out in our current business plan and will be considering this in future planning.
Individual inspectorates are continuing with single agency inspections appropriate to their part of the system.

<h3>Frequently asked questions</h3>
<h4>
What is the role of HM Inspectorate of Prisons?</h4>

HM Chief Inspector of Prisons is appointed from outside the Prison Service, for a term of five years. The Chief Inspector reports directly to the government on the treatment and conditions for prisoners in England and Wales and other matters.

The Prisons Inspectorate also has statutory responsibility to inspect all immigration removal centres and holding facilities on behalf of the Immigration and Nationality Directorate and has recently been invited to regularly inspect the Military Corrective Training Centre in Colchester. In addition, HM Chief Inspector of Prisons is invited to inspect prisons in Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, Isle of Man and some Commonwealth dependent territories.

Who is the Chief Inspector of prisons?</h4>

 Nick Hardwick CBE was appointed HM Chief Inspector of Prisons on 15 July 2010 and is the sixth holder of the office.

Biography
Nick Hardwick began work as Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Prisons in July 2010. He was previously the first Chair of the Independent Police Complaints Commission from 2003 to 2010.
His earlier career was in the voluntary sector, where he began working with young offenders for NACRO (The National Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders). From 1986 to 1995 he worked as Chief Executive of Centrepoint – a charity and housing association for young homeless people. In 1992 he was seconded to the Department of Environment to work as a special adviser to the then Housing Minister, Sir George Young Bt. MP. He was the Chief Executive of the Refugee Council from 1995 to 2003.
He is currently chair of the Housing Ombudsman Service (no remuneration taken) and a trustee of New Horizon Youth Centre.
Nick has a BA (Hons) from Hull University in English Literature and has an Honorary Doctorate in Social Sciences from the University of Wolverhampton. He was awarded a CBE in 2010.
He lives in London with his wife and son.

Salary and pension
Nick Hardwick CBE, currently receives a remuneration package of £115,000 and is a member of the Civil Service Premium Pension Scheme, which is an occupational defined benefit pension scheme.
Pension contributions are currently 3.5% of pensionable earnings and it is ‘contracted-out’ of the state scheme. Payable pension is 1/60 of final pensionable earnings for every year of reckonable service in the scheme.

'https://www.justice.gov.uk/information-access-rights/transparency-data/hmi-prisons'])">'Expenses'.

What other staff work at the Inspectorate?</h4>

The Chief Inspector, Nick Hardwick, has six inspection teams working to a Deputy Chief Inspector. Each team specialises in the inspection of a specific type of custodial establishment, for example, young offender institutions, immigration removal centres, adult women's or men's prisons.

Inspection staff include:

healthcare inspectors

drugs inspectors

a head of thematic inspections

researchers

editorial and administrative staff

The Prisons Inspectorate works jointly with other inspectorates such as Ofsted, the Dental Practice Board and the Royal Pharmaceutical Society. This joint work ensures expert knowledge is deployed on prison inspections and avoids multiple inspection visits.
<h4> What do the inspections consist of?</h4>

The Inspectorate’s programme of inspection is based on a mixture of chronology and risk assessment. Full inspections run on a five or three year cycle; all unannounced follow-up inspections run on a risk-assessed basis. The annual programme of police custody inspection includes a balance of announced and unannounced inspections, a mix of high, medium and low risk areas and a combination of Metropolitan boroughs and provincial forces.

Full inspections

Prison establishments holding adults and young adults are inspected once every five years. Establishments holding juveniles are inspected every three years. Full inspections of individual forces or Metropolitan Police boroughs are carried out every five to six years.

Prison inspections last for at least one week, and police inspections for a few days to a week depending on the number of custody suites within the force or borough. The Inspectorate collects information from many sources, including the people who work there, the people who are imprisoned or detained there, and visitors or others with an interest in the establishment. Inspection findings are reported back to the establishment’s managers. Reports are published within 18 weeks of inspection. The establishment is then expected to produce an action plan, based on the recommendations made within the report, within a short period following publication.

Full follow-up inspections

Follow-up inspections are unannounced and proportionate to risk. In full follow-up inspections inspectors assess progress made and undertake in-depth analysis of areas of serious concern identified in the previous full inspection, particularly on safety and respect.

Short follow-up inspections

Short follow-up inspections are also unannounced and conducted where the previous full inspection and our intelligence systems suggest that there are comparatively fewer concerns.

Immigration removal centre and short-term holding facility inspections

Every immigration removal centre (IRC) will receive a full announced inspection once every three years. The inspection lasts for one week. Follow-up inspections of IRCs are conducted on a risk-assessed basis. All non-residential short-term holding facilities (STHFs) are inspected on a six-year cycle. All residential STHFs are inspected on a four-year cycle.

Escort inspections

Three escort inspections are conducted every year.
<h4> What is the inspection methodology?</h4>

There are three stages to each inspection:

pre-inspection visit

the inspection

post-inspection action

Pre-inspection visit

One month prior to each full announced inspection, an inspector will visit the establishment to plan the inspection and request a range of preliminary information.

In addition, researchers will attend to conduct a confidential survey of a representative proportion of the prisoner population. Results from the prisoner survey are provided for inspectors prior to the inspection and constitute an important source of evidence.

The inspection

All inspections are conducted against the Inspectorate's published inspection criteria, 'Expectations'. 'Expectations' are based on international human rights standards, as well as Prison Service orders and standards, and over all issues considered essential to the safe, respectful and purposeful treatment of offenders in custody and their effective resettlement.

Expectations specify the criteria for inspection and indicate the sources of evidence upon which an assessment can be made. Sources of evidence include prisoner survey groups, individual interviews carried out with staff and prisoners, the prisoner survey results, documentation and observation by inspectors.

Inspection findings are fed back to the Governor and key members of staff throughout the inspection. A formal debrief to the Governor and senior managers is held on the last day of the inspection.

Post-inspection action

Inspection reports are published within 18 weeks of the inspection. Prior to publication, the Prison Service (or whoever is responsible for the establishment) is invited to correct any factual inaccuracies within the report. The establishment is then expected to produce an action plan, based on the recommendations made in the report, within two months of publication. A progress report on the action plain is produced after a further 12 months.
<h4> How is the inspection process quality assured?</h4>

Following every inspection, feedback is sought on the inspection process from the prison Governor, senior management team and the liaison officer in order to improve methodology.

An annual survey is conducted of the Inspectorate's main stakeholders on the structure and content of our inspection reports to ensure that reports are as appropriate and informative for as many audiences as possible.
<h4>Does the Inspectorate do any other work?</h4>

Yes, the Inspectorate also publishes thematic reviews, which are studies conducted on specific custodial issues. These reviews are increasingly jointly conducted with other inspectorates - particularly criminal justice inspectorates on wider criminal justice issues.
<h4> How do I make a complaint against HM Inspectorate of Prisons?</h4>

Although we set ourselves high standards, there may be occasions when you are dissatisfied with the way we have conducted ourselves. Our complaints page provides information on how to complain about HM Inspectorate of Prisons or a member of our staff, and how we will respond.

<h1>COVID-19 Update</h1>

In line with government guidance on social distancing and recognising the current pressures on the Criminal Justice System in responding to Covid-19, some of the planned joint inspection activity has been suspended.
As a result we will be unable to deliver all joint inspection activity as laid out in our current business plan and will be considering this in future planning.
Individual inspectorates are continuing with single agency inspections appropriate to their part of the system.

The report is the first of two which, between them will consider the response, decision-making and effectiveness of the police and CPS at every stage of a rape case - from first report through to finalisation of the case. This first phase focuses on those cases where either the police or the CPS made the decision to take no further action (i.e. not to proceed with the case). Rape is a truly devastating and life changing crime. The stark drop in the number of cases that have gone before a jury in recent years means too few victims are seeing justice - reversing that is an absolute priority for the CPS. We are determined to drive up the number of rape cases going to court. Too few victims are seeing justice and we are working hard to change that. We recognise the courage that it takes to make a report of rape to the police and we welcome the recommendations regarding a victim-centred approach, founded on targeted specialist support for victims. We have listened to victims who tell us they have felt let down by their experience in the criminal justice system. We are absolutely committed to restoring confidence to make it easier for victims to stay engaged. We are working closely with victim services to improve how we communicate with victims to help them understand and support them through the process. The CPS is pleased to note that the Inspectorate commended the many dedicated people who work within the organisation who are unwavering in their efforts to do the right thing for victims of rape, often in very difficult and challenging circumstances. The CPS is also pleased that the report concluded that the CPS decision to take no further action was correct in 87 of the 90 cases that were assessed and in one of those three cases the decision was overturned by the CPS following a victim appeal. At the same time the CPS understands and accepts that the approach to investigation and prosecution to rape and the response of the wider criminal justice system must improve. A blame culture serves no one and the CPS is determined to work closely with our police colleagues to improve outcomes for victims. Significant work is already underway. In July 2020, we launched our RASSO 2025 strategy outlining a suite of products to help reduce the gap between the number of rape reports and criminal justice outcomes. The Police-CPS Joint National RASSO (Rape and Serious Sexual Offences) Action Plan 2021 (JNAP), published jointly with the police in January 2021, provides a significant opportunity for prosecutors and investigators to radically change the way they work together and with interested parties. The CPS welcomes all the recommendations made in the report which, alongside the HM Government end to end rape review will be used to shape our improvement activities. The CPS are already encouraging and trialling innovative practices in CPS Areas and are committed to exploring and testing further innovative working with the police under Operation Soteria pathfinders to robustly evaluate the impact of different joint practices. <h2>Recommendations for CPS:</h2> Recommendation 4: Immediately, police forces and CPS Areas should work together at a local level to prioritise action to improve the effectiveness of case strategies and action plans, with rigorous target and review dates and a clear escalation and performance management process. The NPCC lead for adult sexual offences and the CPS lead should provide a national framework to help embed this activity. We accept this recommendation and work is already underway to improve the effectiveness of action plans. Action 15 within the JNAP is aimed at improving the effectiveness of action plans with good communication, clear timelines and robust escalation points. From March 2021 it has been a requirement that a District Crown Prosecutor must review all rape cases where it is proposed that a second action plan will be sent to the police following the submission for a charging decision under the Full Code Test. All CPS Areas are required to submit a quarterly assurance return identifying how many cases there are with two or more actions plans and the Area must identify any narrative theme for why this is occurring. Areas are also required to have an agreed escalation process with each police force for action plan responses to ensure cases proceed expeditiously. This is in addition to the nationally agreed escalation process made between the CPS, the National Police Chiefs Council (NPCC) and the College of Policing in the National Case Progression Commitment published in March 2021. Recommendation 5: Police forces and the CPS should work together at a local level to introduce appropriate ways to build a cohesive and seamless approach. This should improve relationships, communication and understanding of the roles of each organisation. As a minimum, the following should be included: considering early investigative advice in every case and recording reasons for not seeking it;

the investigator and the reviewing prosecutor including their direct telephone and email contact details in all written communication;
in cases referred to the CPS, a face-to-face meeting (virtual or in person) between the investigator and prosecutor before deciding to take no further action; and a clear escalation pathway available to both the police and the CPS in cases where the parties don't agree with decisions, subject to regular reviews to check effectiveness, and local results. We accept this recommendation. The 6th Edition of the Directors Guidance on Charging (DG6) came in to force on 31 December 2020 and it strongly recommends that Early Advice is provided in rape and other serious sexual offence cases. Action 8 within the JNAP commits to launching and embedding new guidance on early investigative advice to ensure that the police and CPS jointly build strong cases from the outset. To help achieve this goal a memorandum of understanding (MOU) has been drafted jointly between the CPS and the NPCC to encourage greater use of Early Advice. The MOU has now been signed off by CPS Areas and police forces, and builds on the Early Advice pilot ongoing in the South East. The MOU reaffirms that Early Advice is a fundamental part of the investigation process in rape cases and every case should be considered for Early Advice. The MOU provides best practice guidance including that direct contact details are provided by investigators and prosecutors so that a face to face or virtual consultation can be held. An action within the JNAP commits to ensuring that all police force and CPS areas have effective joint monitoring and escalation mechanisms in place for live investigations.   Recommendation 6: The police and the CPS, in consultation with commissioned and non-commissioned services and advocates, and victims, should review the current process for communicating to victims the fact that a decision to take no further action has been made. They should implement any changes needed so that these difficult messages are conveyed in a timely way that best suits the victims' needs. We accept this recommendation. Work is already underway, as part of the JNAP, to improve the quality of our communications with victims to ensure they are timely and sensitive to victims' needs at every stage of the criminal justice process. This work is being delivered through a joint police and CPS lead project group on improving communications with victims and are developing and driving forward a number of recommendations, including a victims' procedural justice toolkit for police and prosecutors. This will put the needs of the victim at its heart, with communication preferences tailored to the victim's specific needs. We are developing a refreshed CPS No Further Action victim letter, with renewed focus on sensitivity. We are also developing two new CPS victim letters - an introductory letter at the point of referral from the police and a letter at the point of charge. We will undertake user needs research to understand how best to communicate with victims and witnesses, to perfect our letters - this will include a complete review of the Victim Communication and Liaison (VCL) scheme as per the 2020 HMCPSI report. We will also use victims' experiences to enhance training for RASSO staff. We have also just published a national framework outlining a baseline standard for how we work with Independent Sexual Violence Advisors (ISVAs), who are invaluable in improving victim confidence, experience and participation with the criminal justice process. This is being implemented locally in all CPS Areas. Under Operation Soteria we are also exploring more innovative ways to communicate with victims and improve the victim experience of the system. Recommendation 9: Immediately, the CPS should review and update the information on the policy for prosecuting cases of rape that is available to the public. The information provided about how the CPS deals with cases of rape must be accurate. Victims and those who support them must be able to rely on the information provided to inform their decisions. We accept this recommendation. Development of a new RASSO public policy statement to improve public understanding of how the CPS deal with and prosecute these cases is already underway as part of our CPS RASSO 2025 actions. The policy statement is currently being tested with external stakeholders and will be published in Summer 2021. The CPS have also published updated rape and serious sexual offences legal guidance on 21 May 2021. The updated guidance aims to further equip and support the efforts of our RASSO prosecutors to build a greater proportion of code compliant RASSO cases that are prosecuted. The new guidance takes on board considerations from a wide range of victim support groups, psychologists and the legal community, following a public consultation launched in October 2020. As part of the JNAP, work is already underway to provide victims with clear information about the various stages of the criminal justice process through the production of online and offline information products, including the development of a ‘digital walkthrough’ for rape victims, to help them navigate the criminal justice process and signpost access to support services. This will be launched soon. Together with the police, we are also developing a national leaflet for RASSO victims. Recommendation 10: Immediately, the College of Policing and the NPCC lead for adult sexual offences should review the 2010 ACPO guidance on the investigation of rape in consultation with the CPS. The information contained in available guidance must be current to inform effective investigations of rape and provide the best service to victims. We accept this recommendation and we will support our police colleagues in their review and updating of this guidance. Recommendation 13: The College of Policing, NPCC lead for adult sexual offences and the CPS should prioritise action to provide joint training for the police and the CPS on the impact of trauma on victims, to promote improved decision-making and victim care. We accept this recommendation and more widely we agree that joint training between the police and CPS is vital to improve investigations and prosecutions. As part of this work the CPS and police are jointly holding an online conference, ‘Closing the Gap: Supporting you in RASSO Investigations and Prosecutions’ between 12 July and 10 September 2021. The conference will be made up of a series of pre-recorded webinars on topics such as supporting victims and casework quality and will be available for all rape investigators and prosecutors in England and Wales. An action within the JNAP is aimed at improving staff understanding of the neurological impact of trauma. Earlier this year, new mandatory training for prosecutors covering the neurological impact of trauma on memory was launched. To date more than half of all CPS rape prosecutors have completed this training. </article> <h3>Related Pages</h3> Inspectorate responses <div

Bring the curriculum to life with a visit to Buckingham Palace during the summer. We offer a range of interactive workshops, tours, learning activities and resources for nursery, primary and secondary pupils. Our school visit information will help teachers and organisers plan their visit.

School activities at Buckingham Palace are published each spring and take place during the summer. Throughout the rest of the year we offer school sessions at the Royal Mews and The Queen's Gallery, Buckingham Palace.

The State Rooms of Buckingham Palace and the Palace Garden are fully accessible. Concessionary rates are available if you have a disability and a companion will be admitted free of charge.
To book on to the Access route, which is step-free, and to arrange accessible parking, please contact the Specialist Sales team on +44 (0)303 123 7324 or specialistsales@rct.uk.
Accessible toilets and limited seating are available.
Registered assistance dogs are welcome.
The multimedia guide is available in British Sign Language (BSL) and with subtitles, and an audio-descriptive guide is available for blind or partially-sighted visitors.
A number of Wardens are Dementia Friends, please ask staff for any assistance.
The State Rooms tour is indoors, taking in several large rooms and halls over two floors, exiting via a long outdoor gravel path through the garden. As the State Rooms are open during the summer months, it can become very hot inside.
There is a separate gift shop available on the Access route and the terrace café is fully accessible.
For detailed access information, please select one of the options below. For any other information, you can contact the Specialist Sales team on +44 (0)303 123 7324 or specialistsales@rct.uk.
